

Real People. Real God. Real Solutions.

Recap:

Being fake is about creating and protecting an image that you want people to see when they look at you. Do you find yourself not wanting people to see the real you? In some area in our life we put on a show for someone...it's simply human nature. This could be exaggerating the truth to make yourself look better, downplaying sin, or a number of other possibilities. The problem with this is that we can fake it so long that we begin to believe the lie. Our blind spot could be that we pretend to be someone that we are not.

1. Why do we so naturally work hard to create and protect an image?

---

---

---

---

2. In what areas do you exaggerate the truth to make yourself look better than what you are?

---

---

---

---

3. What sins do you hide that you would not want anyone to know about?

---

---

---

---

4. Take a moment to think about people that you trust that you can invite into your life to help you identify if you have a blind spot in this area.