

Real People. Real God. Real Solutions.

Recap:

James says that faith without deeds is dead. This does not paint a pretty picture. What he is saying throughout this entire section is that deeds are a testament to our faith. We are not saved by what we do, but by grace through faith. Though we are not saved by deeds, what we do for God is a testament that our faith is genuine and alive. What does your faith look like?

1. After hearing the sermon, write down a definition for faith.

---

---

---

---

2. Is there another way to show you have a relationship with God apart from deeds?

---

---

---

---

3. If someone followed you around, how much would they see you do for God?

---

---

---

---

4. Write down a few things that you can do this week to live out your faith that you are not already doing.

---

---

---

---