

Why is it that we pour so much into a relationship before we are married, but then put the cruise control on once we say “I Do?” Most people in a marriage would say that the passion has cooled off a little bit, but most are not working to rekindle the flame. It is important for married couples to invest time and energy to the relationship in order to have a Killer Marriage. What could you do to once again make the marriage hot?

1. Are you meeting all the needs of your spouse? What can you do better for them to show them that you love and care about them?

---

---

---

---

2. How often do you go on dates? What do you do when you go? What could improve your date nights?

---

---

---

---

3. After reading Song of Songs, you see the way that spouses should think of one another. What can you do to help your spouse see you in that way?

---

---

---

---

4. The challenge that Paul laid out in his sermon was to go on a date three times over the next three weeks, and then to date once a month for the rest of the year. Be sure to put it on the calendar and make it happen. Protect the precious time that you have with your spouse.