

Marriage was created by God in the beginning to make humanity whole and complete, and he alone knows how to make a marriage work. During this series, we will be examining what God has to say about the relationship between a husband and wife. Through God's word we see that no marriage is hopeless, and no marriage is fail proof. One tweak one direction or another can revive or destroy a marriage. Having healthy marriage takes work, but it is always worth it. Do you have a Marriage Killer, or a Killer Marriage?

1. How would you define a Killer Marriage? Do you believe that you have one now?

---

---

---

---

2. What safeguards do you have in place to help protect you marriage (Like safety software on your computer or blocks on certain cable channels)?

---

---

---

---

3. What would you recommend a couple do that was on the brink of divorce? What message of hope would you give them?

---

---

---

---

4. Take some time to think and pray with your spouse. Determine what you have to do to make your marriage better, and protect your marriage from falling.